Fire Breaks Out at Orpheum Theatre

Vancouver, April 2 —

Fire broke out at 9:35 o'clock last night in the Orpheum theatre and the Morgan dancers held their pose on the stage, the holiday audience of some 1500 people fled out without injury. The theatre was cleared of the major portion of the audience in three minutes. Though some irresponsible cried "Fire", the crowd refused to take alarm. A couple of women in the balcony, where the fire broke out, fainted, but they were escorted to the fresh air and revived immediately.

Ran Niagara in a Barrel

Niagara Falls, June 28, 1911 —

Bobby Leach, a navigator of the Lower Niagara River, attempted to make the trip through the Whirlpool rapids this afternoon in a barrel. The barrel turned over suddenly after Leach entered it and the airhole was submerged. In this position it floated into the rapids.

Leach remained in the pool for two hours, tossed and tumbled about in his steel cage, being most of the time submerged. He was finally taken from the barrel, almost suffocated and bruised and bleeding. The water in the barrel was knee deep when Leach was rescued.

Shipbuilders Will Play the National Biscuit Nine at Recreation Park;
Game Called at 3 P.M.

April 9, 1918 —

Vancouver's first baseball game of the season will be played at Recreation park, corner of Homer and Smythe, this afternoon, when the National Biscuit company's team of the Commercial league will play the independent nine of Coughian's shipyards. All the Commercial league managers and players will be on hand to get a line of the strength of the National this season and a large crowd of "railbirds" are expected to avail themselves of the opportunity to see the first ball game of the season. The game will be called promptly at 3 p.m.

Lineup Announced

The National Biscuit company has always had a strong team, finishing in the first division of the league for the past five years. The lineup this year looks even better than usual, Leo Solloway and Jimmy Ralston, two of the

ROYALTY VISITS BURNABY

Municipality welcomes
Prince of Wales

In 1919 the Municipality of Burnaby went all out to welcome the Prince of Wales who visited the Hall at Edmonds and Kingsway where he gave a short speech. An archway was erected at Kingsway and Edmonds proclaiming "Burnaby Welcomes You". A rather amusing incident occurred when a young policeman, who had been assigned to divert the traffic off the part of Kingsway near the Hall became quite annoyed that a car driven by Miss Trapp, daughter of New Westminster businessman T. J. Trapp, insisted on coming through. It turned out to be the royal conveyance. In a day when women drivers were a rarity, who could blame the policeman for assuming the Prince would be chauffeured by a man?

Goat Expert Sees "Disaster"

Cheap Texas Goats Not
Good Milkers: This is Opinion of Burnaby Expert

Burnaby, B.C., April 9 —

"For Vancouver city to bring in 1,000 goats from Texas and place them on the local market at $10 or $11 each would mean disaster to the industry," said Major A. M. Mowat, of Burnaby yesterday.

Major Mowat has been in the goat business for some years, and last fall imported from Los Angeles a carload of goats that cost him $4,000 to land in Burnaby. In giving his reason for thinking that the goat industry would receive an awful blow if these Texas goats were imported. Major Mowat explained that when he went south last fall to

Mock Parliament is Held

Claburn, April 3—

The Clayburn society discussed "The Nationalization of Railways" at their last meeting. At the conclusion the audience decided by a majority vote that the speakers for the affirmative had presented the most convincing arguments. The affair resolved itself into a "mock parliament." J. J. Plommer was the "speaker". The seats were drawn up in two rows, facing one another in parliamentary style, those supporting the affirmative sitting in the row to the right and the opposing forces in the row to the left of the speaker. Parliamentary procedure was followed as closely as possible.

Miss Cruickshank led the affirmative side, supported by Linden Seldon, Mrs. J. L. Miller, J. W. Ball, Miss N. Miller and R. Ball. The negative side was championed by Miss MacNaughton, assisted by Rev. J. L. Miller, Mrs. E. Hunt, F. Seldon, S. McMorrin and R. L. McCulloch. The leaders spoke twenty minutes each and the others were given five minutes each.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Alban's Church held a very successful "at home" yesterday afternoon in the parish room. The sale of work and garden produce, netted a handsome sum.

FINED FOR DRINKING

The charge of assault preferred against Joseph Massey at Burnaby on Christmas Day was yesterday reduced to one of being drunk on which count he was fined $2.50 and costs. His companion, Smith refused to prosecute him on the assault charge.

DIED

January 4, 1910.

The wife of Tai Weng, a Chinaman, recently arrived from Rossland, died yesterday. The body is being embalmed at the Murchie Undertaking Parlor, and will be shipped to China for interment in the course of a few days.

Trams Annoy
Resident

Dear Sir,

These maniac motor-men have got to be STOPPED! There is absolutely no peace left in town with these wild persons around.

The men think they own the roads with no consideration for cars, animals or even people. There is no help for the person who gets in the way of the inter-urbans. The fools drive the trams so fast that animals do not have a chance to even run for safety before they are run over. Precious pigs, cows, and birds are killed every day through the careless driving of the motor-maniacs.

I have not yet mentioned the tremendous noise made by the inter-urbans as they race past good, honest people's homes. As the trams go faster the noise increases until it is almost unbearable.

The town council has done nothing to solve the problems created by the trams. I say we people of Heritage Village need to stand together to get quick and reliable action. A meeting will be held at Elworth House next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. All those interested please come and help drive these motor-men off the roads.

purchase his goats he went by way of Los Angeles and saw these goats, the offspring of which he now sells for about $35 per goat. Thinking this price too high, the goat-seeker went on to Texas and Arizona, but here he found the cheaper grade of goats being raised in these states were allowed to run in large herds on the plains and had become badly inbred.

"Many of these herds," said Major Mowat, are owned by Indians, whose ideas of raising cattle on the prairies for beef purposes with no thought of proper breeding that is so necessary in producing good milking stock."

Earache-- 'Never put anything smaller than your elbow in your ear.'

Tobacco smoke, puffed into the ear, has oftentimes been effectual in curing earache.

Toothache--

The worst toothache may be cured by the application of ammonia to the affected area. Sometimes the late sufferer is prompted to momentary laughter, but the pain will disappear.

Thought for Today

One day as I sat musing, sad and lonely without a friend, a voice came to me out of the gloom saying, "Cheer up, things could get worse". So I cheered up and sure enough things got worse.

presented by:

The first broilers of the season appeared on the market this morning and sold for 60 cents a pound, live weight. This startling figure, however, was probably due to the fact that there were only half a dozen of these birds, and they were of a good size considering the season. The six weighed 8½ lbs. and the owner when he came in asked 75 cents a pound for them—just for a joke. Several Chinamen wanted them badly and after considerable dickering, a bargain was made at 60. Generally speaking, however, the price of chicken was down; 33 cents a pound was about the best price that could be had for fat hens, although some few were sold at 34; leghorns were fetching 30. The egg market was stationary, so far as price is concerned, but there was a plentiful supply and the demand was good. Here and there small lots were sold for 43 cents wholesale, but by far the greater part of the business was done at 42 cents a dozen. Retail, most of the business was at 45, although a few asked 50. There was no change in meat prices, except that veal, after a temporary decline lasting for just one week, stiffened again and sold up to 25 for choice stuff, while hogs were 25½ and even 26 in some cases for No. 1. Beef at the packing house has advanced another half cent, being quoted now at 21 cents for No. 1 steer. The dearest month is generally May, and local butchers begin almost to believe the prediction of a wholesale buyer, made some time ago, that the price would go to 25 this summer. So far as this market is concerned, however, there is no No. 1 steer, but the packing house price is a standard by which all others are set, and today there was a stiffening in some lines of retail meats.

A late shipment of Northern Spy apples was brought in and sold like hot cakes at $1.75 a box. They were very good apples. The potato market continued dull.

The following prices were quoted:

Poultry
Hen, light	30c
Hen, heavy	33c
Chickens, dressed	35c & 40c
Vegetables
Potatoes, per sack	$1.25
Carrots, sack	75c
Turnips, sack	$1.00
Onions, sack	$2 to $2.25
Beets, sack	$1.50 to $1.75
Eggs and Butter
Eggs, retail	45c to 50c
Butter, prime ranch retail	50c & 55c
Wholesale Meats
Beef	16c to 18c
Leg of Mutton	40c
Pot Roast	25c to 28c
Roast Pork, shoulder	30c to 35c
Roast Pork Loin	40c
Boiling Beef	20c to 25c
T-Bone Roast	35c to 40c

Four Horse Deal

Jury awards damages of $100 to Mr. William Black, the Vancouver Plaintiff May 16, 1911. In the County Court on Wednesday, a special jury of six awarded $100 damages and costs to William Black of Vancouver, against George Grauer of Delta in connection with a horse deal. This was the case in which Mr. Moses B. Cotsworth was summoned to appear as a juror and failed to put in an appearance as already reported.

The plaintiff claimed damages alleging the animal was not as represented at the time it was sold to him. The case was tried before Judge Howay and a jury of six, composed of Horace Dorer, foreman, C. B. Cross, V. H. Brown, C. H. Diamond and James Croll. After hearing the evidence and deliberating for 25 minutes the jury returned a verdict for $100 and costs for the plaintiff. Mr. G. E. Martin appeared for the defence and Mr. P. Grant of Vancouver, for the plaintiff.

Childhood Memories

Information contributed by Mr. Ted Norman.

Children growing up in Burnaby in the early years of this century enjoyed a wide variety of activities in their leisure moments. Boys competed in sports such as baseball and soccer at school, and some would even make their own equipment when necessary. In the summer the local children swam in Deer Lake and those who had boats staged races, rowing frantically from the old mill sawdust piles at the Sperling end of the lake to the Prison Farm property, on the other end of the lake, and back again.

Christmas and Hallowe'en were the two big celebrations during the year that many children looked forward to. On Hallowe'en local children dressed in old clothes and went trick or treating. Sometimes they were given handouts, but just as often were told to be on their way.

Such treatment sometimes seemed to merit such reprisals as fences being put up on shed roofs, outhouses being tipped over and real estate "for sale" signs being planted on the property of unsuspecting householders who were most bewildered when prospective buyers appeared at their doors.

Burnaby May Days were big days too, when all the school children and many of the adults in the Municipality gathered for the occasion at Central Park or later, at Robert Burnaby Park. Races, sports events, maypole dancing and picnicing were the order of the day.
