

CITY OF BURNABY

BYLAW NO. 12015

A BYLAW to regulate the tethering of dogs

The Council of the City of Burnaby ENACTS as follows:

1. This Bylaw may be cited as BURNABY ANIMAL CONTROL BYLAW 1991, AMENDMENT BYLAW 2006.

2. Subsection (1) of section 2 of Burnaby Animal Control Bylaw 1991 is amended by adding thereto, immediately after the definition “pound keeper”, the following:

“ ‘tether’, when used as a noun, means a leash, rope, chain, line, cord or other similar device by which an animal is attached to a stake or other stationary object or to a pulley run or running line, and, when used as a verb, means to attach an animal by means of a leash, rope, chain, line, cord or other similar device to a stake or other stationary object or to a pulley run or running line;”

3. Subsection (1) of section 9 of the said Bylaw is amended by adding thereto, immediately after subsection (f), the following:

“(g) any dog tethered contrary to section 15A(8).”

4. Subsection (a) of section 15A(2) of the said Bylaw is amended by striking out the words “tethered or” in both places where they appear.

5. Section 15A of the said Bylaw is amended by adding thereto, immediately after subsection (7), the following:

“(8) No person shall:

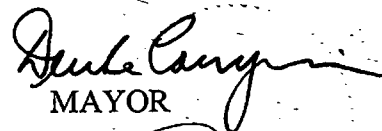

- (a) keep a dog tethered while unattended for more than one hour in any day;
- (b) keep a dog tethered for more than one hour in any day, whether attended or not, on property used for any purpose other than residential use;
- (c) tether a dog with a choke collar, training collar, or studded collar or otherwise than with a collar that is properly fitted to that dog and attached in a manner that will not injure the dog or enable the dog to injure itself by pulling on the tether; or
- (d) tether a dog except with a tether of sufficient length to enable the full and unrestricted movement of the dog.”
