MANAGER'S REPORT NO. 11

COUNCIL MEETING Feb. 12/73

12. Re: Senior Citizens Recreation Centre
Kingsway and Edmonds

The Parks and Recreation Commission at its meeting on February 7, 1973, decided to recommend for the approval of Council the name "Edmonds House" for the Senior Citizens Recreation Centre at Kingsway and Edmonds Avenue.

The Commission proposed the following type of signing for the Centre: A sign with the wording "Edmonds House" immediately above a sign with the wording "Elder Citizens Recreation Centre". The second of the two signs will identify the facility as being for the use of elder citizens (a similar sign is to be installed at Confederation House at the request of elder citizens who use that Recreation Centre).

RECOMMENDATION:

THAT Council concur with the recommendation of the Commission.
