REMARKS:

There was a slight decrease in Break, Enter & Theft occurrences compared to last month, and a slight increase in thefts of motor vehicles. There were 3 robberies, one involving the attack on a 23-year-old woman by a 20-year-old male. The young man came up behind her, grabbed her around the throat and threw her to the sidewalk. She screamed and tried to get away, but he grabbed her hair and hit her head against a stone wall. He then ran off with her purse and contents. He was arrested a short distance from the scene and is presently before the court.

Hallowe'en night was very orderly in Burnaby. A full complement of personnel turned out to give complete police coverage and we were fortunate to include a good turnout of Auxiliary Police.
