REMARKS:

Three reports of Rape were investigated during November. Charges have been laid in one case and two are still under investigation.

Two cases of Robbery with Violence which involved hitchhikers were investigated during November. In one instance, the hitchhiker was the victim when a car stopped and occupants robbed him, then administered a beating. The second instance was a robbery at knifepoint of $260.00 from the driver after he had picked up a hitchhiker. Charges have been laid in a third Robbery with Violence in which $400.00 was stolen from a victim after he was severely beaten about the head, at his residence, by persons whom he had invited to his place after a drinking party.

Seven separate reports of Armed Robbery were investigated during the month; one at gunpoint and the remainder involved threat by use of a knife. The premises victimized were 5 corner groceries, 1 service station and a take-out fried chicken premises.

The number of traffic accidents and personal injuries has shown an increase for November. Roadblock checks will be receiving greater attention during the month of December, with the oncoming festive season.

NOTE: The fraction figure in the upper righthand corner in the space "members on duty" is to be read as 179 on strength out of the 184 authorized strength.
