REMARKS:

Major crimes committed during the month included an attempt to extort money from a major food store Manager by a bomb threat, but the culprit was overpowered by other employecs and turned over to the attending police. The bomb threat was idle, but the would-be extortionist had a CO2 revolver.

The investigation of a house fire and double fatality resulted in a Coroner's Jury bringing in a verdict of homicide and suicide in the case of the deceased man and wife.

A taxi driver was robbed at gun and knife point by two drug addicts. They took his money, wallet and car keys, and then fled. The taxi driver radioed his dispatcher who phoned our office and police cars were directed to attend. Police dogs located the two men in hiding and the gun, knife, wallet and money were recovered. Photo-faxed fingerprints revealed one of them was wanted by the F.B.I. in New York.

Two other armed robberies, a robbery with violence and a complaint of rape were investigated during the month.
