

ITEM (SUPPL.)24
MANAGER'S REPORT NO. 67
COUNCIL MEETING Oct. 25/76

Re: SPECIAL ISSUE - INFORMATION BURNABY
PUBLICITY ON THE BURNABY COMMUNITY PROJECTS REFERENDUM
(Item 20, Manager's Report No. 67, October 25, 1976)

The Liaison Referendum Committee would like to delete the answer given to the question "What does this mean to my taxes?" as shown on page 173 of the agenda and insert the following answer:

- A. The average Burnaby residence in 1976 has a taxable assessment of approximately $21,000. To pay for the cost of the loan, the average amount of taxes per annum on such a residence for the next twenty-three years will approximate $28.00.

* * * * *

ITEM (SUPPL.)24
MANAGER'S REPORT NO. 67
COUNCIL MEETING Oct. 25/76

Re: SPECIAL ISSUE - INFORMATION BURNABY
PUBLICITY ON THE BURNABY COMMUNITY PROJECTS REFERENDUM
(Item 20, Manager's Report No. 67, October 25, 1976)

The Liaison Referendum Committee would like to delete the answer given to the question "What does this mean to my taxes?" as shown on page 173 of the agenda and insert the following answer:

- A. The average Burnaby residence in 1976 has a taxable assessment of approximately $21,000. To pay for the cost of the loan, the average amount of taxes per annum on such a residence for the next twenty-three years will approximate $28.00.
