OUR FILE: 12.135

TO: MUNICIPAL MANAGER
FROM: DIRECTOR OF PLANNING
SUBJECT: WILLINGDON HEIGHTS
NEIGHBOURHOOD IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMME

On 1977 October 11 Council authorized the Planning Department to proceed with the Planning Phase of the Willingdon Heights Neighbourhood Improvement Programme.

Since last October a Neighbourhood Planning Office has been established at 4132 Hastings Street, a volunteer N.I.P. Resident Advisory Committee has been set up to work with the Planning staff, and a questionnaire has been distributed to all households in the N.I.P. area.

The Planning staff, working in conjunction with the N.I.P. resident committee and other Municipal Departments have now prepared a report of Draft Planning Proposals for Willingdon Heights which at the time of writing is being printed. Copies of the report will be made available to Council on Monday for information. This report has been discussed with the appropriate Municipal Departments and is being distributed to all households in the N.I.P. area for public comment.

Two public meetings are being held; the first on Tuesday, 1978 May 09 at Kitchener School Activity Room and a second meeting on Thursday 1978 May 11 at Willingdon Heights United Church Gymnasium at Parker and Carlton Streets. Both meetings
