TO: MUNICIPAL MANAGER PLANNING DEPARTMENT
FROM: DIRECTOR OF PLANNING 1980 OCTOBER 01
SUBJECT: LOUGHEED HOTEL/LIQUOR LICENSE
4343 LOUGHEED HIGHWAY

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT this report be received for information purposes.

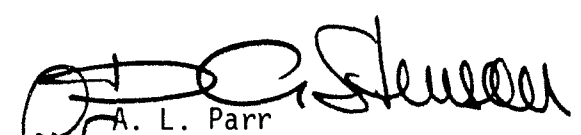

REPORT

Appearing on the 1980 September 29 Council Agenda was a letter from Mr. C. B. Coward, requesting Municipal authority to obtain a Class "C" Cabaret License for the Lougheed Hotel.

Upon discussing this matter with officers of the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch, the Planning Department advises that the applicant's letter should be considered simply as a request for confirmation of zoning pursuant to the Branch's procedure for issuing "site preclearance". As a result, Council's consideration of this request is not required at this time, but rather will be dealt with by the Planning Department as a zoning information item.

Should the Liquor Control and Licensing Branch issue site preclearance to the subject proposal, Council will be required to evaluate this matter in due course through the submission of a more detailed Manager's Report containing all relevant Departmental input.

This is for the information of Council.
