TO: MUNICIPAL MANAGER 1982 November 08
FROM: TREASURER
RE: SOUTH BURNABY GOLDEN AGE SOCIETY: EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT the Burnaby Taxation Exemption By-law No. 2, 1982, By-law No. 7973 be excluded from recommendation No.1 of Item 11, Manager's Report No. 62, 1982 November 08.

SUMMARY

This is a supplementary report regarding the eligibility of the South Burnaby Golden Age Society to be granted exemption for 1983 taxes on the building and property that they lease at 5024 Rumble Street. While the Society's eligibility for exemption is determined by the Park and Recreation Commission, the exemption must be granted by Council in by-law form.

REPORT

At their meeting of 1982 November 03 the Park and Recreation Commission examined the eligibility of various community organizations to qualify for tax exemption in 1983, pursuant to Section 400 of the Municipal Act. In the case of the South Burnaby Golden Age Society, the Director Recreation & Cultural Services advises that the Commission deferred endorsement for exemption pending receipt of further information regarding the degree of recreational services that are provided. Recreation & Cultural Services staff will endeavor to provide this information to the Commission in time for their recommendation to be received by Council at the meeting of 1982 November 15.

Under these circumstances it will be necessary to exclude the Burnaby Tax Exemption By-law No. 2, 1982, By-law No. 7973, from recommendation No. 1, Item 11, Manager's Report No. 62, 1982 November 08.

In the event that the Park and Recreation Commission recommend 1983 tax exemption for the South Burnaby Golden Age Society, By-law No. 7973 will be returned for Council's consideration, and if appropriate, initial readings at the meeting of 1982 November 22 with final reading at adoption on 1982 November 29. This would meet the statutory deadline of 1982 November 30 for adoption of by-laws setting out tax exemptions for the forthcoming year.
