TO: MUNICIPAL MANAGER
FROM: OFFICER IN CHARGE, BURNABY DETACHMENT RCMP
SUBJECT: PARKING VIOLATORS - METRO TOWN AREA

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT a copy of this report be sent to Mr. Gordon F. KILBY,
#202 - 4957 Newton Street, Burnaby, B.C. V5H 4B9.

SUMMARY:

A letter from Mr. Gordon F. KILBY was directed to the Mayor and Council on September 08, 1987, bringing to attention that he had observed many parking violation offences and suggested enforcement.

REPORT:

Mr. KILBY was visited in person and was told our Bylaw Officers spend a good percentage of their time in that area because the parking problem is well recognized. During the month of August 2,000 parking tickets were issued, of which approximately 1,200 were for infractions in and around the Metro Town area.

While it is reasonable that Mr. KILBY personally sees many infractions we can only devote so many hours to a given area since we have to provide this service throughout the Municipality. Mr. KILBY appeared to be unaware the Municipality had Bylaw Enforcement officers and once this was explained, he seemed to appreciate the problem was receiving the required attention.

We are satisfied that the matter is well in hand.

N.L. Fuchs, Superintendent
Officer in Charge
Burnaby Detachment
