NEW BUSINESS

Alderman Nikolai:

Alderman Nikolai requested that Council agendas be circulated to the North Burnaby students attending the Council meeting.

Alderman Nikolai also requested staff investigate abandoned homes opposite the Burnaby Post Office to determine whether or not the mortgage holder could be convinced to demolish these buildings.

The Deputy Director Planning and Building Inspection, Mr. D.G. Stenson, advised that demolishing of the buildings is a prerequisite to the rezoning application, but that under normal circumstances buildings are not to be demolished prior to third reading of the rezoning bylaw. However, in the event that buildings are vandalized and cause a safety concern the Fire Prevention Officer may order their demolition. Staff will request the Fire Department do an assessment of the properties in question to determine whether or not they are to be demolished.

Alderman Young:

Alderman Young expressed concern with regard to the no parking signs on the newly constructed Wilson Street. Alderman Young expressed a view that day parking should be provided on this street.

MOVED BY ALDERMAN YOUNG:
SECONDED BY ALDERMAN BEGIN:
