TO: MUNICIPAL MANAGER 1990 JANUARY 02

FROM: CHIEF LIBRARIAN

RE: FREEDOM TO READ WEEK - FEBRUARY 16-23, 1990

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT Council adopt the Proclamation of Freedom to Read Week and proclaim February 16 - 23, 1990, Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby.

REPORT

At its meeting held 1989 December 21 the Burnaby Public Library Board received correspondence from the British Columbia Library Association Intellectual Freedom Committee concerning the above noted subject. The letter advised that Freedom to Read Week, sponsored by the Book and Periodical Development Council in Toronto, was scheduled to take place February 16 to 23, 1990, and requested support for the attached Proclamation. In response to this letter The Burnaby Public Library Board adopted the following recommendation

"That the Library Board endorse the Proclamation of Freedom to Read Week and request that the Mayor proclaim February 16 to February 23, 1990, as Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby."

The Burnaby Public Library Board therefore recommends

THAT Council adopt the Proclamation of Freedom to Read Week and proclaim February 16 - 23, 1990, Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby.

Paul Whitney,
Chief Librarian

PROCLAMATION

Whereas The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantees freedom of thought, belief, opinion, and expression;

And Whereas The Public Libraries of Canada have served as a "people's university" through facilitating access to all expressions of knowledge and intellectual activity including those which are sometimes viewed as unconventional, unpopular, or unacceptable;

And Whereas The broad availability of such knowledge and information is essential for an active citizenry;

And Whereas The Public Libraries of Canada provide this knowledge to all citizens regardless of age, educational attainment, ethnic heritage, or social or economic condition;

And Whereas The Canadian Book and Periodical Development Council and the British Columbia Library Association Intellectual Freedom Committee are sponsoring Freedom to Read Week from February 16 - 23, 1990 in order to celebrate and defend these freedoms;

Now, Therefore, I, William J. Copeland, Mayor of Burnaby, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the period of February 16, 1990, to February 23, 1990, inclusive as in the Municipality of Burnaby and in so doing urge every citizen to recognize and defend the right of free expression.

"Freedom to Read Week"
