At its meeting of 1991 October 16, the Parks and Recreation Commission approved the renewal of a Licence Agreement between the Corporation of Burnaby and Radio NW Limited for use of a 9' x 9' site on Burnaby Mountain. An Agreement has been in effect since 1956 and was last renewed in 1986. The site is located east of Centennial Way in the south-east corner of Burnaby Mountain Park. This site accommodates a mobile FM Control Station. The unit consists of a 35-foot tubular steel mast with a 6-cubic foot housing unit mounted on a 2' x 2' x 3' concrete base.

The licence agreement expires on 1991 October 31 and the Legal Department has negotiated a five year renewal. The renewal increases the nominal use rate from $200 to $250 per annum. All other terms and conditions of the agreement remain the same.
