MANAGER'S REPORT NO.	6
COUNCIL MEETING	94/02/07

TO: CITY MANAGER 1994 JANUARY 25
FROM: CHIEF LIBRARIAN
RE: FREEDOM TO READ WEEK - FEBRUARY 28 TO MARCH 07, 1994

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT Council adopt the Proclamation of Freedom to Read Week and proclaim February 28 - March 07, 1994, Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby.

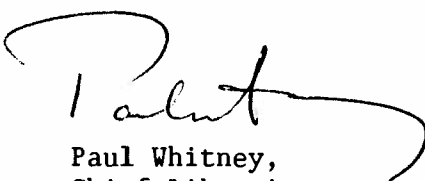

REPORT

At its meeting held 1994 January 20, the Burnaby Public Library Board received correspondence from the British Columbia Library Association Intellectual Freedom Committee concerning the above noted subject. The letter advised that Freedom to Read Week, sponsored by the Book and Periodical Development Council, was scheduled to take place February 28 to March 07, 1994, and requested support for the attached Proclamation. In response to this letter the Burnaby Public Library Board adopted the following recommendation

"That the Board request City Council declare February 28 to March 07, 1994, as Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby."

The Burnaby Public Library Board therefore recommends

THAT Council adopt the Proclamation of Freedom to Read Week and proclaim February 28 to March 07, 1994, Freedom to Read Week in Burnaby.

Paul Whitney,
Chief Librarian.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas The Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantees freedom of thought, belief, opinion, and expression;

And Whereas The Public Libraries of Canada have served as a "people's university" through facilitating access to all expressions of knowledge and intellectual activity including those which are sometimes viewed as unconventional, unpopular, or unacceptable;

And Whereas The broad availability of such knowledge and information is essential for an active citizenry;

And Whereas The Public Libraries of Canada provide this knowledge to all citizens regardless of age, educational attainment, ethnic heritage, or social or economic condition;

And Whereas The 10th annual Freedom to Read Week is organized by The Canadian Book and Periodical Development Council with the support of the British Columbia Library Association Intellectual Freedom Committee in order to celebrate and defend these freedoms,

Now, Therefore, I, William J. Copeland, Mayor of Burnaby, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the period of February 28, 1994, to March 07, 1994, inclusive as in the City of Burnaby and in so doing urge every citizen to recognize and defend the right of free expression.

"Freedom to Read Week"
