

CITY OF BURNABY
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL

HIS WORSHIP, THE MAYOR
AND COUNCILLORS

#15/01 Burnaby Information & Community Services
Society - Burnaby Seniors' Transportation Service

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT a grant in the amount of $13,750 be awarded to the Burnaby Information & Community Services Society - Burnaby Seniors' Transportation Service for 2001.

REPORT

An application was received requesting a grant to assist with transportation of Burnaby Seniors to medical appointments. This service is operated by a dedicated group of volunteers who drive seniors to and from their appointments. The drivers also help the seniors into and out of the doctors office or hospital. This service affirms a commitment to a high quality of life for our older citizens and allows them to maintain an independent lifestyle for as long as possible.

Request:	$13,750	CPA: 2000 -	$13,750
		1999 -	$13,750
		1998 -	$13,750

#39/01 Brentwood Nursery School Society

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT this grant application be denied.

REPORT

A grant application was received from Brentwood Nursery School Society, a non-profit organization. At this nursery school, 72 families participate with teachers and the community to support a unique education for their 3 - 5 year old children.

The Brentwood Nursery School Society is seeking funding toward the purchase of a digital video camera so that parents can be emailed pictures of their childrens' involvement in current curriculum topics. This would help parents become more involved in their childrens' education process.

Request:	$2,000	CPA: 2000 -	Nil
		1999 -	Nil
		1998 -	Nil

The Executive Committee of Council recommends that this grant application be denied.

Respectfully submitted,
