Councillor Dan Johnston recognized the following individuals who were being recognized at the Council meeting as Local Heroes for 2006 for their outstanding contributions to the community well being and provided brief details of their personal contributions over the past years:

Amanda van Aggelen:

Amanda, a first-year student at SFU and high school graduate of Burnaby Mountain Secondary School, has been an active volunteer in her community. In 2003, she helped design and implement the Grade 8 Mentor Program at her high school, which has since become a model for other mentor programs within the School District. As past president of the School District 41 Student Advisory Committee, she worked along side Burnaby School Trustees on District events and growth plans for the Burnaby School District. She served as coordinator for the BC Student Leadership Conference and Burnaby Youth Week and also devoted numerous volunteer hours to the Abbeyfield Senior's Home, Kids Help Phone, Canadian Cancer Society, Canadian Kidney Foundation, Knitting for the Homeless, Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Children's Charity/Canuck Hospice.

Delia Benig:

Delia has been an active volunteer and parent at Maywood Community School. For the past 4 years, she managed the clothing room in the school and assisted families in need to find clothing and household items. She has been a welcoming support for many immigrant families, particularly the Filipino community. Delia has also been active in volunteering for many social events and fundraisers at the school, such as the Terry Fox Run, Carnival, Flea Market, and BBQs just to name a few.

Pat Beaucamp:

Pat, a Burnaby resident, has been an active volunteer with the Pacific Assistance Dogs (PADS) organization for over 6 years. PADS, which has operated in Burnaby for 15 years, trains dogs to become a source of support and independence for individuals living with disabilities. Pat has taken a leadership role in advocating for the organization, as well as fundraising and recruiting, encouraging, and supervising other volunteers.

Ryan Brandlmayr, Paul Legge, and Charn Toor:

For the past five years, Ryan, Paul and Charn have coached and mentored the Burnaby South Lions Boys Basketball Team. As volunteer coaches, these three young men go above and beyond the call of duty, dedicating numerous hours to practice, games, and off-season activities. Their level of commitment to the team is year round. They mentor their team members not only to be successful on the court but also to succeed as competent, caring and confident individuals. They encourage their team be socially responsible as well by hosting charitable tournaments, raffle sales, student contests and bake sales. Proceeds of their efforts have gone to organizations such as the Burnaby Children's Fund.

Ardell Louise Brophy-Fitzpatrick:

For the past eight years, Ardell has used her talents to organize and facilitate many volunteer fundraising opportunities on her own and through her stand-up comedy show the Laff Riot Girls. Some of the many organizations for which she has fundraised include, the Canadian Cancer Society, Heart and Stroke Foundation, Saint James Community Service Society, Big Sisters, Basics for Babies, Empty Stock Fund, Burnaby Christmas Bureau, Raising the Roof Comedy Fundraiser Toque Tuesday, and Hurricane Katrina Victims. She chairs the United Way Campaign and since 1999, Ardell has volunteered at the Burnaby Fellowship during the Christmas holidays and for the past three years has helped to organize Christmas Day Dinner at the Burnaby Fellowship. Ardell is currently serving as a member of the Social Issues Committee.

Aalia Chatur:

Aalia is an active volunteer at Burnaby Hospital. Last year, she initiated and formed the Youth Volunteer Council with the mandate to strengthen the engagement of youth volunteers and thereby enhance the quality of service they provide to patients and staff. In this leadership role, she displayed a strong vision and commitment to the development of the Council. Aalia is also an active volunteer member of the Ismaili Muslim Community. In this capacity, she serves as chief editor of the Ismaili Youth newsletter and has organized many cultural, social and sporting events. For over three years, Aalia has also volunteered as a Helper at the Carlton Lodge Care Facility.

Bonnie Davies:

For the past 10 years Bonnie has been a volunteer with the Burnaby Hospice in palliative care. Her dedication is evident in the emotional and practical support she provides to people with life threatening illnesses and to their loved ones. Bonnie has also been a volunteer with the Action for Animals in Distress Society for two years, caring for abused animals and finding them loving homes. She also makes regular social visits to the residents of the New Vista Care Facility.

Liz Dill:

Liz has been an active community member in Burnaby for over ten years. Prior to her retirement this year, Liz served as Community School Coordinator for Gilmore Community School. She has been involved in numerous community-building groups and initiatives, such as the Burnaby Inter-Agency, Norburn Inter-Agency, Early Development Table, Empty Bowls, Heights Neighbourhood Association, and Vibrant Burnaby. In her retirement, Liz continues to be actively involved in the community as a volunteer facilitator for the Roots of Empathy Program and as a member of Vibrant Burnaby.

Doreen George:

Doreen has been an active community member in Burnaby for over ten years. In her role as Community School Coordinator for Maywood Community School, she has gone above and beyond the call of duty providing support to individuals and families, particularly in the settlement of many immigrants and newcomers to Burnaby. In the 2006 Dow Avenue fire that rendered more than 40 families homeless, Doreen provided a galvanizing force in mobilizing community social services to provide housing, clothing, furniture, and groceries. Doreen has also played a key role in a number of projects and organizations, such as Empty Bowls, and Burnaby Optimist Club.

Rhodora Horgan:

Rhodora has been an active volunteer at Stride Avenue Community School for over 10 years. She has spent numerous hours volunteering in classes, as well as coordinating school events. She has helped develop and mentor several programs, including the Grade 7 Year Book, Grade 6/7 Leadership Group, and "Wowee" Women's Group, as well as an arts & craft program for local children. She has also been chair of the Community Council.

Gerry Juzenas:

Gerry has been a volunteer with the Burnaby Association for Community Inclusion (BACI) for 18 years. He is a strong advocate for advancing the rights of people with disabilities in Burnaby and the wider community. He is a founding member of The Voice – a newsletter written by and for self advocates. In 2001, he broadened his advocacy work to an international audience at the 13th World Conference of Inclusion International in Melbourne, Australia. In addition, Gerry has played an integral role in developing This Ability – a digital media project which partnered BACI with the National Film Board of Canada (NFB) and United Way of Lower Mainland to further his advocacy work.

Margaret Koster:

Margaret has been a volunteer at New Vista Society for the past 14 years. She has contributed almost 5000 hours of her time to the New Vista Care Home and Douglas Manor, providing peer support and representing her peers on a number of boards and associations. She has been the coordinator of the New Vista Boutique and weekly dinner program at Douglas Manor. Margaret has also served on the board of directors of the Seniors' Housing and Information Program (SHIP) and the George Derby Care Facility. In addition, she is active on committees at the Edmonds Community Centre and Old Age Pensioners Branch #12.

Jim Lawrence:

Although Jim has been a resident of Burnaby for only 13 years, he has been volunteering with many organizations to serve seniors for 40 years. In Burnaby, he has been volunteering with Citizen Support Services for almost 10 years, driving seniors from their homes to Wheels to Meal Lunch Bunch – a weekly lunch program for seniors and Gadabouts – recreational bus trips for housebound seniors and/or disabled persons. In 2005, he and his wife Irene moved to the Mulberry Retirement Residence, where he continues to entertain and encourage other new residents to get to know one another through his slide show presentations in the evening. Jim, who recently celebrated his 90th birthday, continues to bring humour and a smile to the residents and staff around him.

Anna Rowden:

Anna has been an active volunteer and support to new immigrant families in Burnaby in the Maywood Community for nine years. She has provided a steady supportive friendship to many new families, particularly those that have felt isolated or lonely in the community. She has worked as a volunteer ESL instructor at the Royal Oak Community Church since 1999. She has also catered many social events such as the Royal Oak Community Church Annual Christmas Dinner, which welcome and invite ESL students. In addition, Anna has assisted with the Well Baby Clinic in the Eastburn Community and hearing tests for kindergarten students in a number of Burnaby schools.

Tina Schipper:

Tina, a long time resident of Burnaby, has been volunteering with Citizen Support Services since 1988. For the past 18 years, Tina has been a part of the Volunteer Visitor Program, in which she dedicated numerous hours of one-on-one time and companionship for the elderly. Her warmth and friendship are valued by the people she has touched over the years. Tina has also been part of the Shopping Buddies program, in which she takes elderly clients out to Metrotown twice a week for an afternoon of shopping and socializing. Tina and her husband have been foster parents for over a ten year period, providing a stable and nurturing environment for 48 children in their care.

Hazel Simnett:

Hazel, a Burnaby resident for 84 years, has dedicated numerous hours to community service. She has served as a long time Board Member and Chair of the Burnaby Public Library. She also established the Hazell Simnett Endowment with the library to support the library's collection of books on Canadian history and social issues. In addition to her commitment to the Burnaby Public Library, Hazel has served on the Board of the New Vista Society and volunteered as a member of the Burnaby Historical Society.

Sasha Tewari:

Sasha, a Grade 11 student at Burnaby Mountain Secondary School, is an active member of the community. As a student, Sasha took it upon herself to create and chair the Involvement Club: Charity Activists Relentlessly Envision (IC CARE). The IC Care Club is a group that raises funds for relief and poverty issues. She is an active member of the Counter Attack Club, a club that advocates against drinking and driving. Sasha also contributes her time as a peer tutor and volunteer to a number of community events, such as the "Great Salmon Send-Off" (City of Burnaby), FunRec (City of Burnaby Parks and Recreation) and Science Alive (SFU).

It was also noted that this year is the 10th Anniversary of the Local Hero program and to date, Burnaby has recognized 148 individuals as Local Heroes.

4. NEW BUSINESS

There was no new business at this time.

5. INQUIRIES

Councillor Rankin

Councillor Rankin noted that Helen's Children Wear on Hastings Street is going out of business and inquired as to whether or not the City could preserve the landmark neon sign for historical purposes.

Mayor Corrigan stated that the city was aware of the issue and that he understands an attempt is being made to sell the business space with the sign, noting the sign is currently leased.

Councillor Jordan advised that Burnaby's Historical Planner, Jim Wolf, is looking into this matter on behalf of the Community Heritage Commission and the City.

Councillor Johnston

Councillor Johnston inquired about an article in the Vancouver 24 Hours publication which states the provincial government is launching a public-relations campaign, including a new website, to avoid being blamed for rising homelessness and mentally ill people on the street.

Arising from consideration of the matter, Council requested staff provide a memo providing more information on this matter.

Council complimented the City's Engineering Department for keeping the streets clear during the recent heavy snowfall.
