SUBJECT: 2019 PERMISSIVE TAX EXEMPTIONS

PURPOSE: To obtain approval for Permissive Property Tax Exemptions for 2019.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. THAT the Finance Management Committee recommend Council authorize the City Solicitor to bring forward a Permissive Property Tax bylaw to exempt properties from property taxation in 2019 in accordance with Attachment 1 of this report.

REPORT1.0 INTRODUCTION

The exemptions outlined in this report fall within Section 224 of the Community Charter and are further administered by Council Policy. In the spring of each year, application forms for the following taxation year are sent to each organization that was previously granted a permissive property tax exemption and to any other organizations that has indicated an interest in applying for a permissive property tax exemption. Each application that is received by the City is subject to a verification process.

For new or revised applications, a site survey plan will be prepared and sent to BC Assessment for the purpose of calculating the assessment value of the property. Notices are sent to provisionally approved and rejected applicants. Applicants are encouraged to provide additional information where required.

Council's policy for granting permissive exemptions dates back to 1986 and was formulated to provide equitable treatment for those applying for exemptions as well as maintaining the property tax base; thereby, minimizing the impact of exemptions on the remaining tax payers. The policy was intended to provide exemptions for services and organizations that provide "complementary extensions of Municipal services and for which the burden resulting from the exemption is a justifiable expense to the taxpayers of Burnaby".

The policy stipulates that before being considered for an exemption, properties must comply with the legislation and their use must be:

- Consistent with municipal policies, plans, bylaws, codes and regulations;
- Not-for-profit and not for commercial or private gain;
- Complementary extensions to Municipal services;
- Accessible to the public; and
- Used primarily by Burnaby residents.

Exemptions are not permitted for residential properties, including private hospitals and care homes.

A bylaw under Section 224 may only come into effect for the next taxation year once public notice of the proposed bylaw has been given and subject to the bylaw being adopted on or before October 31 of the year prior to the taxation year for which the exemption is approved.

In accordance with Section 227 of the Community Charter, public notification of the estimated value of each exemption must be advertised for two consecutive weeks in a local newspaper. The public notification process, as outlined in the legislation, requires that an estimate of the total value of the property tax exemptions proposed under the bylaw be provided for each of the following 3 years.

The estimated total value (for all taxing authorities) of the Permissive Tax Exemptions as set out in this report and attachment is as follows:

Year	Estimated Total Value (for all taxing authorities)
2019	$2.9m
2020	$3.0m
2021	$3.1m

4.0 NEW APPLICATIONS – NOT RECOMMENDED FOR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION

4355 Mathissi Place 5589-4355-0004
Burnaby Family Life Institute

This organisation receives Permissive Tax Exemptions for multiple properties; however, the site on 4355 Mathissi Place is not eligible for an exemption on the following grounds:

- The applicant is not the registered owner on title.
- Services provided at this location are not a “Complementary extension of Municipal Services”, as the organisation operates a café at this location that competes directly with similar private businesses.

1049 Sperling Avenue
Down Syndrome Research Society

6695-1409-0000

This organization applies for a Permissive Exemption from Taxation each year, and has consistently been rejected. The application for 2019 is rejected on the following grounds:

- The application states that only 20% of users are Burnaby residents
- Does not appear to be a “Complementary extension of Municipal Services”

6755 Napier Street
1030 Sperling Ave Nominee Corp

0930-6755-0000

This new application has been rejected on the following grounds:

- Ownership title changed in May 2018, after the City received the application with the information from the previous owner (The Synod of the Diocese of New Westminster - St. Margaret of Scotland Anglican Church)
