The City of Burnaby's annual Environmental Awards Program recognizes significant achievements in environmental stewardship and sustainability by people, businesses, organizations, and institutions in our community. The program was established in 1996 based on policy direction in the City's State of the Environment Report (1993). Today the program supports the goals and policy directions of the City's Environmental Sustainability Strategy (2016) and the following goal and sub-goals of the City's Corporate Strategic Plan (2017):

A Healthy Community (Goal 4)

- Healthy environment (sub-goal 2)
- Lifelong learning (sub-goal 3)
- Community involvement (sub-goal 4)

A complete list of award recipients since 1996 can be found on the City's website (www.burnaby.ca/environmentawards).

2.0 ENVIRONMENTAL AWARDS PROGRAM

The 2018 Environmental Awards Program Terms of Reference are presented in Attachment A. As shown, there are six award categories: Business Stewardship, Communications, Community Stewardship, Green Choices, Planning and Development, and Youth. As established in 2000, there are two award designations in each category:

- Environmental Award, for recognition of environmental achievements of a larger scale, such as long-term commitments to an organization or cause, leadership of other individuals, and projects of a significant size and relatively complex scope that have a broader community impact, and
- Environmental Star, for recognition of environmental achievements of a smaller or more individual scale that may nevertheless serve to catalyze larger initiatives and inspire others.

In each year, a maximum of one Environmental Award and two Environmental Stars may be awarded in each category.

For this year, it is proposed the City issue a call for nominations on January 23 and establish Thursday, March 29 as the last day to receive nominations. Nominations are reviewed and recommendations for Award and Star recipients to Council are made by a sub-committee of the Financial Management Committee. The recipients will be announced to the public at the Regular Meeting of Council on May 14 and will be invited to attend a reception at City Hall and to receive their awards at the Regular Meeting of Council on June 11.

The call for nominations will be promoted across the City using, but not limited, to the following methods: the City’s web page, poster placement in all civic facilities, direct email contact with the local environmental community and the City’s community partners, social media, the City’s environmental e-newsletter, and print or web-based advertising in local newspapers (funds requested for advertising are discussed in Section 3.0).

This year’s recipients and their environmental achievements will be promoted to the public as part of Burnaby Environment Week that is tentatively scheduled for June 02 to 10, 2018. A separate report to Council regarding the Environment Week Program is scheduled for February 2018.

3.0 CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP AND REQUESTED EXPENDITURES FOR ADVERTISING

Staff plans to solicit corporate sponsorship, as in previous years, to provide supplementary support for Environment Week and the Environmental Awards Reception. Sponsorship provides corporations in the community the opportunity to become involved in local environmental stewardship.

Council approval is also sought for an expenditure of $2,500 from the Boards, Committees and Commissions' operating budget to advertise and promote the Environmental Awards Program call for nominations. This amount will provide for a combination of online and print advertising in local media, printing costs for posters and promotional materials and paid advertising on social media. The requested expenditure is the same amount as was approved in the previous two years.

4.0 CONCLUSION

The Environmental Awards Program celebrates individuals, groups, businesses, and institutions that are contributing to environmental stewardship and sustainability in our community. It is recommended that the Committee seek Council approval for the 2018 Environmental Awards Program, a call for nominations from January 23 to March 29 and an advertising expenditure of $2,500 from the Boards, Committees and Commissions' operating budget for promotion and advertising of the program.
