The following speakers connected through the online webinar or teleconference in response to the proposed rezoning application:

Scott Green, 4714 Cedarglen Place, Burnaby, requested clarification regarding the proposed rezoning application.

Craig Sidjak, Director of Campus Development BCIT, 3700 Willingdon Avenue, Burnaby, informed Council that the zoning application will allow BCIT to realize their vision of a livable and sustainable campus.

John Pringle, 4746 Willowdale Place, Burnaby, queried if BCIT would replicate the development at SFU's UniverCity, and the express concerns with subsequent impact on Greentree Village.

Maria Pires, 4976 Thornwood Place, Burnaby, spoke in favour of the requested rezoning application, the proposed amenities, and the naturalization of the stream.

Scott Green, 4714 Cedarglen Place, Burnaby, spoke for a second time requesting information regarding the hours of commercial enterprises on the campus.

Jaimi Sinclair, 4753 Willowdale Place, Burnaby, expressed concern regarding the notification process. Ms. Sinclair advised that she received her notification the day prior to the Public Hearing. The speaker raised concerns regarding increased traffic and parking, and noise from construction.

Craig Sidjak, Director of Campus Development BCIT, 3700 Willingdon Avenue, Burnaby, spoke for a second time advising that the primary focus is to allow the development of educational resources. The retail component is to serve the needs of staff, students, and campus residents.

Scott Green, 4714 Cedarglen Place, Burnaby, spoke for a third time stating that he supports the vision of a more sustainable and walkable community; however, he requested that the commercial entities serve only the BCIT campus and not the wider community.

Jean Burfoot, 4735 Willowdale Place, Burnaby, expressed concern that the BCIT vision is calling for three different land uses, including high density mixed use.

Jaimi Sinclair, 4753 Willowdale Place, Burnaby, spoke for a second time querying if the rezoning application would allow for additional density in the form of rental or multi-family housing.

Lorraine Combes, 4229 Birchwood Crescent, Burnaby, questioned if BCIT would be providing additional parking on campus, and requested that Greentree Village residents be informed of future developments.

Sharon Nester, 4734 Driftwood Pace, Burnaby, advised that she had no questions or comments at the time of her call.

Lynne Redford, 4741 Willowdale Place, Burnaby, expressed concern that no further Public Hearings would be required for future development at BCIT. Further, the speaker advised that traffic and parking continue to impact Greentree Village.
