A winter in India: light impressions of its cities, peoples and customs

Repository: Burnaby Village Museum
Collection: Special Collection
Type: Book
Accession Code: HV971.5.24
Call No.: 915.4 SPE
Author: Spens, Archibald B.
Place of Publication: New York
Publisher: Dodd, Mead and Company
Publication Date: 1914
Physical Description: xii, 302 p. : ill., pl., maps ; 21 cm.
Inscription: "E129" [written vertically on outside spine] "W-2v" [phrase is crossed out and handwritten in black ink on front paste down] "4500 915.4 S748" [handwritten in black ink on front pastedown] Printed label on front paste down with the following filled in VOLUME NO. "40 129" OF TRAVELLING LIBRARY NO. "198" THE PROPERTY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA [40 and 198 handwritten in black ink. 129 handwritten in pencil and circled New York Times short review of book cut out and pasted onto title page
Subjects LoC: India--Social life and customs
Notes: "with 95 Illustrations in half tone from photographs by the Author"--T.p.