

carousel horse

<https://search.heritageburnaby.ca/permalink/museumartifact37480>

Repository:	Burnaby Village Museum
Accession Code:	BV993.50.10
Description:	Part of the 1912 C.W. Parker Carousel. Carousel horse No. 9, "Mignonette." "American Beauty Rose" style horse, stretched out jumper, arched neck, head tucked in, ears upright, facing back. Colour: Grey-white. Trappings: Red brown stippled saddle, gold bordered. Pink roses on back of cantle. Rose saddle skirt, yellow drape with gold border inset with emerald jewels, and sprays of wild pink roses with ruby faceted jewel centres, surrounded by green leaves. More rose sprays fore and aft of the drape, with emerald cabochon stones between. Rose breast collar with yellow bow with rose spray, centred with ruby jewels, breast plate with clear centre jewel. Rose bridle, with emerald green jewel in gold concho. Another wild rose spray on neck, as above.
Object History:	Carousel horse. Part of the C.W. Parker Carousel on display at the Burnaby Village Museum. Name: "Named after Mignon (Minnie) Uter (nee Coe), a Burnaby pioneer who came here in 1914, residing at 2684 Fern Avenue, with parents John James Coe and Elizabeth (Price) Coe." Sponsors: Ethel and Faye Stebner, and Ken Diamond.
Maker:	C. W. Parker Co.
Country Made:	United States of America
Province Made:	Kansas
Site/City Made:	Leavenworth
Subjects:	Carousels
Name Access:	C. W. Parker Co. Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) Friends of the Carousel Coe, Elizabeth (Price) Coe, John James Diamond, Faye (Stebner) Stebner, Ethel Coe (Uter) Uter, Mignon (Minnie) (Coe)
Record Type:	Artifact

Images

