Item No.:	39416
Storage Location:	Main Stacks 65-1 BHS485
Accession Number:	2005-15 2006-01 2007-18
Scope and Content:	Fonds consists of three series of records: Military records (1941-1945); Civil service records (1934-1973); and Shaw family material (1927-1980).
History/Biography:	John "Jack" Horace Shaw was born in New Westminster on November 27, 1917 to Cecil Alfred Shaw and Margaret Grace Shaw (nee Baker). In 1934, at the age of 16, Jack began what would turn out to be an almost 40-year career with the City of Burnaby. Initially employed as an office boy, by 1938, Jack was made a stenographer and Deputy Clerk. His civil service career was interrupted in 1941 when Jack volunteered to join the Royal Canadian Air Force and he served at the rank of Sergeant until he was honourably released from duty at the end of the war in 1945. While serving in the RCAF, Jack married Lois Eulalia Gilbert and the couple would have three daughters, Judith Annette (Judy), Maureen Daphne (later Maureen Ayers) and Beverley (later Beverley Santo). After resuming his career with Burnaby in 1945, Jack was made Municipal Clerk in 1959, a position he would hold until he retired in 1973. Jack Shaw died on June 14, 1980.
